THANK YOU!

Over thirty years ago Dan and Carlene Foulke became the forwarding agents for Bob and Jackie Muter and WISE. They have faithfully served doing so much of the stateside work while the missionaries were able to concentrate on the work on the field. We are so grateful for them and all they gave to WISE. They will still remain on the board of WISE and continue to be a part of the ministry. Now they will be able to have more grandchildren time☺

Jenna Stout (granddaughter to the Muter's and sister to Amanda Wurdeman) will now be stepping into the shoes the Foulke's filled and all the hats they wore. Please note
the address change.

MEET THE WORKERS

We have a great team in the States of churches and individuals (YOU!) giving to us at WISE to be able to minister and serve there. We know we could not be there serving in St. Vincent without all of you. So thanks for partnering with us.

As we partner with you, we wanted you to personally know our team we serve with each day on the field. All staff members there are past graduates of WISE and each represent a different culture, which we love because it helps us to minister better to all the different countries that come to WISE.

Above is Cleton Burnett with his wife Simone and two boys Kareem (age 7) and Levi (9 mos.) Cleton has been teaching at WISE for 12 years now. He considers it a great joy to mold the next generation of leaders and teachers. He also enjoys cricket. They are from Guyana.

Pictured left, is our family Brice, Amanda, Naiyah, Beckett, and our newest son Paxson Daniel born on June 24th. We are in the States at missionaries on campus this fall at Ozark Christian College transitioning from being in Haiti to now St. Vincent. Amanda is the granddaughter of past directors and founders Bob and Jackie Muter. Brice is the new director originally from Columbia, Mo...so he brings a love for the MU Tigers to the Caribbean.

Pictured next is Angie Powdar. She comes to us from the country of Suriname. She has been at WISE for 6 years and assists in student life and overseeing the visas for students. She feels blessed to be able to teach God's word everyday to the students in the classroom and outside of it.

From the country of Jamaica comes Lancelot and Lisa Brooks. They have a lively young daughter not pictured. Sister Lisa is our school librarian. And Brother Lance teaches many classes and also while being without a director has been over the education department. We are sad as both of these dear friends will leave to head back to Jamaica next July. Lance has taught at WISE for 15 years and Lisa 11.

Simeon and Beatrice Norton along with their sons Tristan and Philandro have a unique history with WISE. Simeon was the past director of WISE and his wife remains on staff overseeing finances. Sister Bea laughs as she never wanted to be a teacher and now greatly enjoys being in the classroom teaching at WISE.

Please Pray for:

-Supporters & Friends the Conklins whose son Gavin went to heaven this past week.

-10 new students arriving to begin at WISE!

- For the government to grant our residency visas soon.

-For all the graduates ministering in their churches to be refreshed and renewed.
